DESCRIBE YOUR TOPIC:
KEYWORDS, CONCEPTS, CASES OR STATUTES

Find the Law – statutes: the authority on your topic.

Use databases to link the statute to expert opinion in articles or texts.

Use databases of annotators to find links between statutes and cases.

Leading cases can lead to expert opinion in articles or texts.

Find judge-made law – cases: the authority on your topic. One good case can lead to another.

Texts can pinpoint the leading cases.

Find secondary sources. Textbooks or legal encyclopaedias can help you articulate your query. Journal articles can give detailed opinion about specifics issues.

Kate Thompson 2014